Approved For Release 2004/10/27 : CIA-RDP77M00144R000500100124-2

JOURNAL

•	OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
:
: . !
STAT	Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to ask if we had any record of the criminal or other use of the poison known as Alstonine. Sourwine is particularly interested in whether we have any record of the use of this substance by the KGB
STAT	5. Dorothy Fosdick, Permanent Investigation Subcommittee staff, called and asked if I could tell her anything of the curre status of Breshney. I told her I would check and be back in touch with her.
STAT	EZ IMPOET GL BY POLY)

	Approved For Release 2004/10/27: CIA-RDP77M00144R000500100124-2 Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Page 4
	Monday - 9 June 1975 SECRET
	Met with Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, at his earlier request and reviewed with him the above material (Item 15). He requested that I review it with Mr. Nedzi directly. He said there would be no useful purpose served in either hisorourrecontacting Congressman Floyd V. Hicks (D., Wash.) in light of the developments during today's briefing of the Congressman on Seriet chemical warfare. He said he was sure that Mr. Hicks would forget the matter and may have appeared to exhibit more concern than he really for	25X1
Γ	Charles Annual Landa Annual Marie Carl
L	SECRET

25X1

25X1

25X1

24. Picked up from Jim Cline, Counsel, House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue. C/SE, is conducting the review.	Approved For Release 2004/10/27: CIA-RDP77M00144R000500100124-2 Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Monday - 9 June 1975	Page 5
Picked up from Jim Cline, Counsel, House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.	CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY	_
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.	· · · · · · · · ·
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette to a relative in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review the tape to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embarrassing to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had visited the Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary Committee to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigration of Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the cassette was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on this issue.
	p romo a up ration that the court	asel.
	House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his receive to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embated to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigrate Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on	International nt trip to a relative the tape trassing visited the Committee ion of the cassette
	House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his receive to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embated to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigrate Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on	International nt trip to a relative the tape trassing visited the Committee ion of the cassette
	House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his receive to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embated to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigrate Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on	International nt trip to a relative the tape trassing visited the Committee ion of the cassette
	House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and Law, a cassette given to him by a Soviet that he met on his receive to the Soviet Union. The Soviet asked Cline to mail the cassette in the United States upon his return. Cline asked that we review to be certain that it does not contain anything that might be embated to him or possibly cause a problem with the Soviets. Cline had Soviet Union with a group of members from the House Judiciary to determine if the Soviets were in any way relaxing the emigrate Soviet Jews from the Soviet Union. The Soviet who gave Cline the was a dissident Jew who has openly expressed strong views on	International nt trip to a relative the tape trassing visited the Committee ion of the cassette

25X1

25X1A

25X1A

	Approved For Rele	ase 2004/10/27 : CIA-RDP	77M00144R000500100124-	2
	Journal - Office of L	-		Page 6
25X1	Monday - 9 June 197	SEC	RET
25X1	26.	Sat in c	on a briefing given to I	?enracantativa
25X1A		Wash.) and his Staff	Assistant, Mike Kre	oon, by
20/(1/(warfare programs.		OSI, on the Sovie	chamical
25X1A		year but had to be temple was the principal b	tion of a briefing which rminated shortly after briefer.	it was begun 25X1
				·
• n
25X1				25X1A
		/ GEO	RGE L. CARY
			slative Counsel
	cc:		,
25X1A	O/DDCI	DDS&T	Compt.
ZUNIA	Ex. Sec.	Mr. Warner Mr. Parmenter	Mr. Thuermer
	DDI	Mr. Clarke
	DDA	EA/DDO

Approved For Release 2004/10/27 : CIA-RDP77M00144R000500100124-2

SECRET